In-Villa Ceramic Day

Get Creative in the Comfort of Your Villa

Slow down, create, and take home something truly yours. This beautifully immersive ceramic workshop is your chance to disconnect from routine and reconnect with something more meaningful — shaping raw clay into a personal, handmade piece, guided by an experienced local ceramic artist.

A Slow, Sensory Creative Journey

This is not a rushed class or a tourist activity. In a peaceful, light-filled studio inspired by Mallorca's artistic soul, you'll learn hand-building techniques, explore textures and natural forms, and design your own piece — professionally fired and glazed after the session, ready for collection or delivery. For added inspiration, combine it with a scenic route through the Tramuntana and the artistic village of Deià.

What Makes This Experience Special

- Hands-on ceramic making in a calm, beautiful studio setting — with optional villa pick-up
- Fully guided by an experienced ceramic artist — no experience required, beginners absolutely welcome
- Small, private-style groups (2 to 10 guests) for a relaxed atmosphere
- All materials included, plus firing and glazing of one piece per guest
- Half-day experience (4–5 hours), available year-round in English and Spanish
- Recommended for ages 10+, with younger children welcome on private bookings

“The first time your hands shape the clay — something raw and simple begins to become uniquely yours.”

- ☐ Family workshop
- ☐ Couples creative session
- ☐ Private guided ceramic class

More than a stay — a way of living here.

Melanie Reeves — Founder

Hello, I'm Melanie. I've called Mallorca home for over fifteen years, raising my two children in the heart of the Tramuntana with the kind of outdoor life I could only have dreamed of for them. Quality of life is what brought me here — and it's what I want every guest to take home from their time with us.

You're not just visiting. For the time you're here, you have a local in your corner. The experiences in these pages are ones I've personally curated with people I trust, and I'm always one message away if you want something tailored, swapped, or invented from scratch.

Tick what catches your eye, jot a note next to it, and send this guide back. I'll take it from there — and I'll make sure your stay is exactly the kind you'll be talking about for years.
